DESIDERATA

DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strenth of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerfull. strive to be happy.

Where will you be

Anonymous

Where will you be when you shall read
This rhyme?
Pursuing, perhaps, a routine
Occupation,
Or dressing and glancing at the time,
Or in the midst of earnest conservation and thinking of me little, if at all.
It will may be that you no longer have me.
What will you do, I wonder?
Will you glance it quickly over and toss it then away
Or something of but small significance
Having but little bearing on your day
Or will you be pleased, no matter where,
To find this sonnet telling you I care.

at Caruso's Diplomat
Rt. 1
Saugus, Mass.

Dear Members of the class of 1981,

I wish to congratulate you on your graduation from Melrose High School. Needless to say there will be many adventures in store for you along life's road. I know that in many ways your experience here at Melrose High School will have benefited you in making decisions to assist in fulfilling your future expectations.

The '80's and '90's will be exciting and challenging. There is no doubt in my mind that you will be called on individually and collectively to play a vital role in guiding the destiny of man. The contributions made by you and your classmates will in no small way insure that future generations will live, enjoy and prosper in a free and democratic society.

Good luck, and may your future be bright and gratifying.

Sincerely,
Claude H. Croston,
Principal

William J. Reynolds

1934-1980

We the class of 1981 dedicate our log to Mr. William J. Reynolds for his years of commitment to the students of Melrose High.

As the Assistant Director of Physical Education, teacher, health counselor, and coach, Mr. Reynolds showed sensitivity to each of the individuals with whom he came in contact.

We will remember his kindness, his sense of humor, his love of nature, and his genuine interest in the increased well being of each person who entered his life.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant;
they too have their story.

The log staff would like to thank the faculty shown on this page for the use of their photograph.

Everyone's true nature showed through at this year's Senior Halloween Party. Some of the unusual costumes included Susan Sophia's lobster, which won the prize for most original costume, and the cheerleaders (Danny Muse and co.). Dracula showed up complete with coffin and gravediggers, who won the prize for the best group. The prize for best food items went to the killer tomatoes, while Doug Green won "kinkiest" as a ballerina. John Mastrangelo gave everyone a few spine-tingling moments as the Phontom of Death, winning the prize for scariest costume.

Music was provided by "Destiny," who impressed everyone with their excellent performance and special effects. A number of lucky people were able to bob for apples, while others tested their strength on the pinata (finally broken by Andy Bidgood). All things considered, the party proved to be a great success.

First row: R. Doucette, L. Spence, K. Daly, M. D'Arcangelo. Second row: Advisor Miss Donnellon, C. McHale, C. Prentice, Advisor Mr. Haley.

The team of class officers of the class of 1981 included President Keith Daly, Vice President Lynne Spence, Secretary Robin Doucette, Treasurer Carol Prentice, and Representatives Christine McHale and Maria D'Arcangelo. They received unlimited support and assistance from faculty advisors Kathleen Donnellon and Tom Haley, senior congressmembers, and many dedicated volunteers.

The senior class officers placed a high value on tradition. Not only did they organize the Halloween Party and the Senior Prom but also hope to have reestablished the nearly forgotten tradition of the annual Winter Ball. The officers distinguished themselves by introducing a very special tradition to Melrose High School. This year the school celebrated its second annual Carnation Day. Near St. Valentine's Day the officers distributed hundreds of flowers sent by the friends and admirers of nearly seven-hundred students.

The officers' main concern was always to please as great a majority as possible while not disregarding the remaining minority. They have especially the class of 1981 to thank for their success.

The Student Congress is a body of students who has been elected by their peers. Each of the three classes votes for six officers and a number of other delegates to organize its own activities. These representatives collectively form the Student Congress, which elects its own officers. This year the Chairperson is Franny Vadala and the Secretary Kimberlee Gauvreau. The Student Congress is primarily a service organization. Its activities this year have included sponsoring the annual Bloodmobile and holding a Christmas party for children with special needs, as well as various fund-raising events. All projects are organized with the assistance and supervision of two faculty advisors, Mr. Robert Hassett and Mrs. Melanie Romano.

The National Honor Society is a group of students distinguished for their high scholastic achievement. Members can be inducted in either their junior or senior year. The Society elects its own officers. This year's officers include: Kimberlee Gauvreau, President; Mary Leahy, Vice-President, Daniel Messina, Treasurer; Julie Hickey, Secretary; and Robert Clifford, Sergeant at Arms. The National Honor Society's major service is a program through which members are able to tutor other students during their study periods. It also provides monitors for Parent-Teacher nights and sponsors a bake sale to raise money for the annual Induction Ceremony. All activity is supervised by two faculty advisors, Ms. Carol Alimenti and Ms. Anita Galante.

CHESS CLUB

One of the most successful teams at Melrose High School has been the Chess Club. Under the leadership of Advisor Ms. Patricia Scialdoni and President Nick Agretelis, the team consistently "swept its opponents off the board." The result was a tie with Peabody and Hamilton-Wenham for first place in the Southern Division. Charles Foster, Paul Degnan, and Ken Tucker led on boards 3, 4, and 5 respectively. Melrose belongs to the North Shore Interscholastic Chess League and competes regularly.

STRATEGIC GAMES CLUB

The Strategic Games Club offers its members a challenging way to use their minds. Games of strategy such as "Wooden Ships," "Iran Men," "Traveller," and "Dungeons and Dragons" put players in situations of "kill or be killed." After a slow start this year, the team with the help of advisor Mr. James Hodgkins got its act together and is going strong. Familiar expressions include: "Hey Duey and Luey!" . . . "Pink alert!" . . . "Bubb le gum crews to your stations!" . . . "Gimme a milk . . . in a dirty glass!" . . . "If there is anybody on this ship, you'd better pray to God we don't find you!"

The French Club began the year with a greatly increased membership and a good deal of enthusiasm. While Mrs. Dooley coordinated everyone with her usual spirit and good humor, elections were held. The results proclaimed Christina Previte the new president, Doreen Halissy the secretary, Barbara Intravaia the treasurer, and Grace Trifaro and Fiona Grigg publicity co-ordinators.

First on the agenda was the famous French-Spanish volleyball game, which the French Club again won by a rather narrow margin! Next was the annual International Christmas party, which was unfortunately cancelled because of an unco-operative snowstorm. However, the club's spirit lived on, and they were ready to start the new year as enthusiastically as ever with plans already underway for the spring of '81.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club began another year with an exciting volleyball game against the French Club. Though the team was strong and spirited, they suffered an agonizing defeat, falling "a la merci des Francais." The Spaniards lost by only one game. Well . . . there's always next year guys.

Mother Nature put a damper on the annual International Christmas Party, which is a celebration of all foreign language clubs. After all the baking and decorating a snowstorm cancelled the feast. Not to be out of spirit, the Spanish Club held a Mardi Gras type celebration in January.

The club wishes to thank Señor Riccio and Señorita Galante, without whom we couldn't have done it. Co-presidents Maria D'Arcangelo and Bubba Brown also made the year a memorable one. We will always remember . . . Sancho . . . how do you make that? . . . when are the pictures?

"I've got it!"

"I'll save you."

ITALIAN CLUB

This has been a busy "anno" for the Italian Club. We began the year with a dessert party at the home of Maria Salamanca, the President. It was a "festa" full of food and music, where we were serenaded by Miss Dominjanni, our advisor, and a reluctant tenor, Matt Scappicchio. Horseback riding followed-our own unique attempt at an Italian Western. Christmas came to the tone of "Bianco Natale," while the red, white and green flew over our celebration of stuffed peppers and baci.

"We'll bring the pizzelle" ... "Mesing?" ... "Squid, yuck!" ... "My grandmother makes the best ..."

Finally, in April, some members of the Club will be going for a visit to the Old Country. Ciao Tutti!

DEBATE

The 1980-'81 school year marked the Melrose High Debate team's twentieth season. Under the fearless leadership of coach Freeman Frank, the team has grown from a group of very green novices to a New England legend. Although this year started slowly, the debaters soon picked up their pace and performed well at the University of Massachusetts, Barrington, and Silver Lake tournaments. They are now looking forward to the big Melrose, Harvard, Keene State, and hopefully Dartmouth tournaments. This year's novice turnout was an incredible forty, soon to be reduced when coaching and work started. The graduating seniors include Mike Scully, Jim Connors, Ron Kearns, Ellen McMahon, Mike Dyson, Mike Hardy, Martha Desmond, and Barbara Desmond.

They will always remember long hours "cutting the Harvard; close friendships; thousands of chorus' of "Drink"; U Mass by way of NH; the "Holyoke sweep;" the Arctic Tournament; "Risk"; O'Keefe and Keene; three hours home from Suffolk; the purple worm; U. Mass in log cabins; keeping Buckley quiet; "Macho Man"; get together; coaching sessions with Leo.

In September 1979 and April 1980, twenty students from MHS took part in an exchange with twenty students from Sasel, Germany. The class of '81 participants are: Laura Conti, Elizabeth Flynn, Deborah Johnson, Lisa Pearson and Susan Schurian. It was an experience we will never forget!

The exchange program is continuing through 1981, with several students from Germany staying in Melrose and attending Melrose High School. Hopefully they will enjoy their stay here as much as we enjoyed ours.

DRAMA

This year's Drama Club was something to be proud of! Under the dedicated direction of Mrs. Cornelia Beliveau, a variety of projects were undertaken. The season began with the performance of George Orwell's "1984." Immediately following rehearsals started for Tennessee William's "The Glass Menagerie." This was presented at the Emerson College Theatre Arts Festival where the group received awards for best actor, best actress, and best production. Club members also attended the New England Theatre Conference at Durham, New Hampshire where they participated in various theatre workshops.

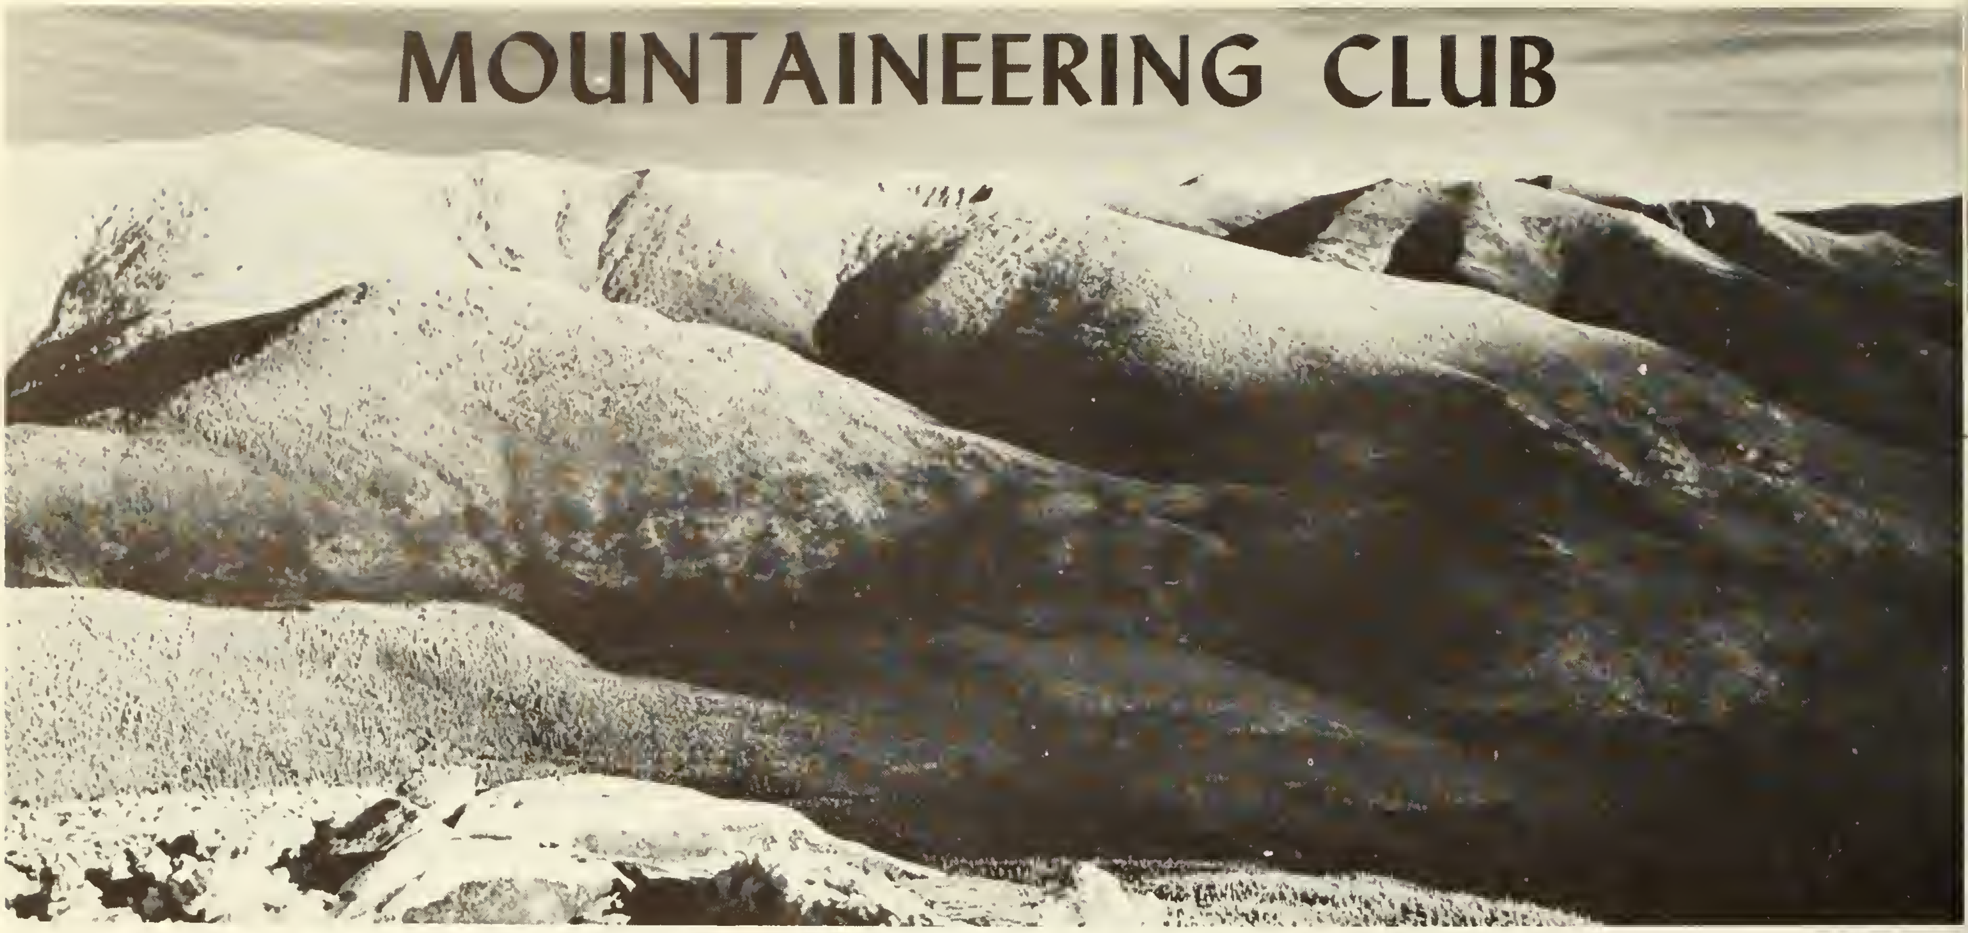
MOUNTAINEERING CLUB



Climb the mountains and get their good tidings.
The winds will blow their own freshness into you and the storms their energy, while cares will drop away from you like the leaves of autumn.

John Muir.

The mountaineering Club traveled to the White Mountains for hiking and rock climbing and offered a canoe trip and mock rescue as new activities. An ascent of Mt. Kinsman was done in September under wintry conditions. After practice climbs and rappels on Artist's Bluff, several members made a partial ascent of the Eaglet, a rock spire in Franconia Notch. The first winter overnight backpack was run in November and although the summit of Mt. Baldface was never reached, the demands of hiking through snow, the exposed ledges of the south peak, and incredible beauty of a white landscape, made the trip very memorable.

Survival techniques, protection of environment, cooperation, and a "go for it" attitude were taught on these outings, with an emphasis on free spiritied fun. Scott Goodwin, Joyce Champoux, John Columbo, Dave Chadwick, Suzy Demars, Lee Nichols, Ken Pitts, April Holley, Don Smith, and Sarah Downey were a few of the regulars and their behavior made guiding a rewarding task for Ron, Jeff, Mike, and Dick. Lasting memories: the free rappel off the Eaglet, climbing in Quincy quarry, following Mr. T's footsteps on Mt. Baldface, Ron's Russian tea, the rime frost on Mt. Kinsman, the mudfight on the Concord River, and the 5.8 on Artist's Bluff.

The Art Club has had a very productive year, despite being a newly formed club. A weekend trip to Newport, Rhode Island, in early October, was a very rewarding experience for the members. Other activities included a portfolio workshop for all members who plan to attend art school in the near future. Former Melrose High School graduates displayed their work and discussed the programs in which they are presently involved. Mrs. Gail Babin is the advisor and Anne Cosco the secretary.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Photography Club offers members the chance to learn the fundamentals of black and white photography. During its weekly meetings, members work in the darkroom. Those who are new to photography learn how to develop film and print pictures, while more experienced members have the opportunity of using the darkroom facilities to improve their skills and work on making photographs for themselves. Graduating seniors in the club include: Scott Goodwin, Susan Chubbuck, Sharon Connors, and Paul O'Connell.

GENESIS

Genesis, the art and literary journal at Melrose High School, is composed of original poetry, photography, art, and short stories. Not only the staff but interested students are encouraged to contribute work. In the past few years, Genesis has held poetry contests and requested students to submit their news of the 1980's in poetry or prose. This gives them the opportunity to discover hidden artistic talents and to be creative. This year, Genesis made an unprecedented early start and had the presses rolling before 1980 was over. In the future, the staff hopes that more students will be aware of the journal and feel free to submit work.

CHORUS

Under Mr. Joseph Messina's guidance, the Melrose High School chorus gave some memorable performances this year. With a membership of close to eighty, the chorus showed great enthusiasm and talent. Mr. Messina and the chorus gave nine performances over the Christmas season, including four at Lord & Taylor's in the Burlington Mall. The annual Christmas Concert was a great success. Finally, the Spring Concert in May is the grand finale of the year. Seniors will always remember first place at the music festival in Mystic Seaport, Connecticut. "cu-juice la tum" . . . The Modern Dance Club is composed of students with different levels of dance ability. Prior instruction is not necessary. Under the guidance of Mrs. Gale Babin, the club gives two performances a year. This year, the winter show had "Variety" as its theme. Different styles of music were used and different dance styles were performed. The theme of the spring show will be "Dance Through the Ages" (the evolution of dance).

We will always remember the fun and the "Dancin'." All those Monday afternoons in the dance room working out and those night rehearsals trying to get it right, all for the "Main Event"-the show. "Enough is Enough" we'd say but we couldn't stop dancing. We'd "Jump, Shout (and) Boogia" until we felt "Upside Down" and "All that Jazz." Only a "Fifth of Beethoven" could keep us "Making' it." We will always remember the excellent times we shared and the people who helped make them.

The Melrose High School Band, through many preseason and weekend rehearsals and drills put together a superb, colorful, and exciting show. After numerous performances and competitions, work began for a 26 hour playathon and a spring trip to Disneyworld. We have grown and learned a great deal. We have gone skiing in the alps and swum off the coast of Florida. We have played at world premieres and played for a whole day straight. For its first year, the Rifle Squad has done an excellent job. Everyone survived the many practices, football games, and competitions as well as the fudge sale, carnival, and play-a-thon. The girls, all former flag squad members, worked hard to learn the carriage and routines. The Rifle Squad placed first in the colorguard division of the Cape Cod Marching Festival. It has been a great year and all members look forward to Florida in March of '81.

""A little Night Music" Monday morning?"

This year's Christmas Vespers marked this season's opening appearance of the Melrose High School Orchestra. The group, under the direction of maestro Theodore Leutz, opened the program with a selection of Christmas carols arranged by Leroy Anderson. All members are now preparing for the big Spring Concert. This school year has been an especially challenging one for the orchestra. The members have courageously "tackled" works ranging from Beethoven and Mozart symphoniss to "My Fair Lady" and "Carousel," and unlike any other year, band members have joined the group every Tuesday to supplement the woodwinds section and create a new brass section. The graduating seniors are very grateful to Mr. Leutz for his dedication and devotion.

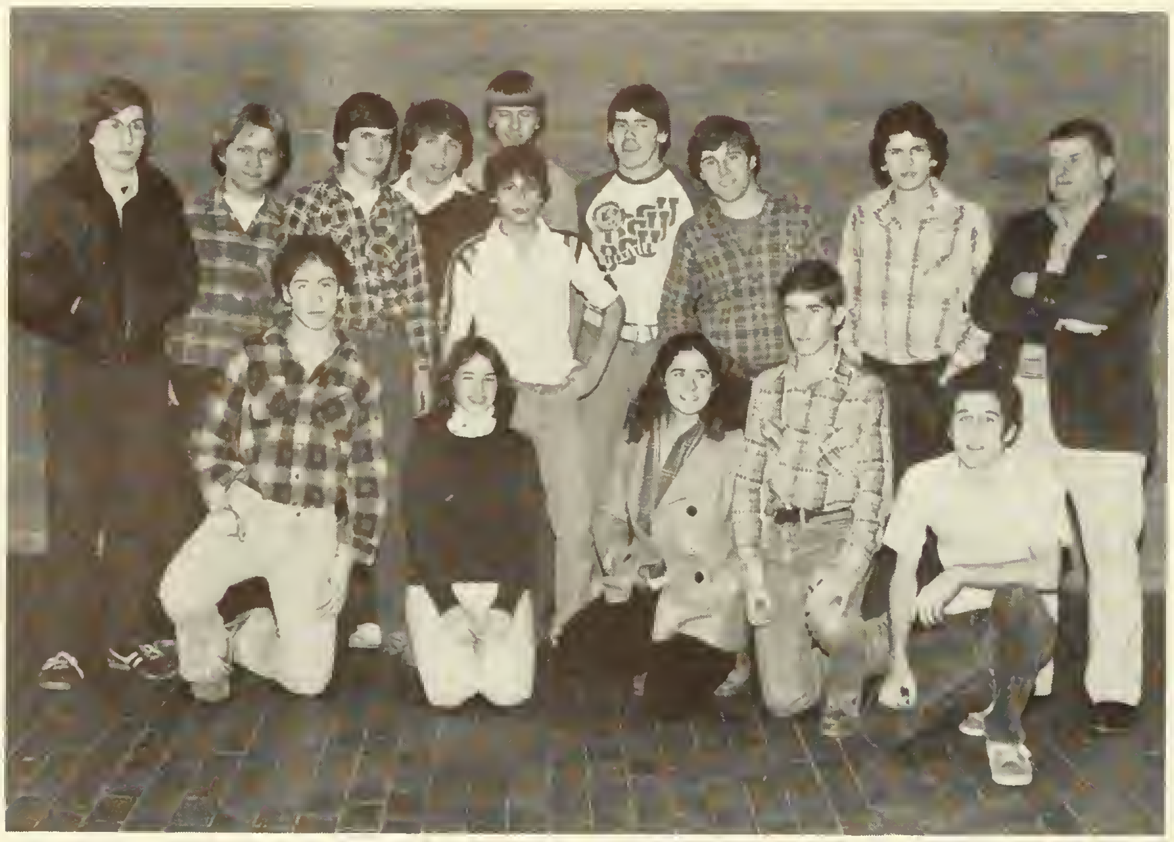
AVIATION CLUB



The Aviation Club is designed to introduce students interested in flying to the many fields of aviation. Under the direction of Donald Dodge, members of the club are given the opportunity to make cross-country flights, go glider flying, and take field trips to Logan Airport, Pease Air Force Base, and other local airfields. This year's senior officers were President Peter Wallace, Vice President Ron Rich, and Secretary Dave Rich.

Thanks to a lot of work by Mr. Paula, enthusiastic students and a little more snow, the Ski Club was able to take two great trips this year! The first of these was to Jay Peak on Jan. 24-25. Twenty-six of us left Friday not realizing that there would be six inches of new powder! There were the best conditions around and we all took advantage, a few even attempted to ski places other than the trails: like down a river (maybe next time Ron!) or off the side of a cliff (completely out of control), and then there were jumps, if you survived through these, you were really hard core! By the end we all knew if the skiing didn't get you, the "Blue Bandana" would! It was a weekend of excellent skiing and good times that will fondly be remembered!

The other trip was to Sugarloaf/USA on Feb. 7-8, again we left Friday (some a little earlier than others) but much to our dismay, there wasn't much snow! Saturday's skiing was icy, and it was a learning day for most. We were all pleased with Julie's completion of her first run-a few hours later. Jurgen was satisfied with his free lunch! It was too bad about Bobby's broken goggles (never mind his head), and if Robin didn't learn much that day, she learned plenty that night. Sunday we woke to snow and although Mother Nature remembered her part, Carol & Christine had problems! The skiing was super with plenty of laughs like Sherri's walk from the top, Scott's "helicopter," trying to ski on one ski, Janice wrapping her skis around a tree, but best was watching Suzi, because if you got in her way: TOUGH! It was another excellent weekend, (almost ending in Saugus), that will be implanted in our memories and hearts for years to come!

Thanks Ron

The Pep Club added a colorful, spirited touch to all Melrose High sports. The club began by decorating the gym with paper footballs, soccer balls, field hockey sticks, and other fall sports banners. They also decorated the gym for the pre-season pep rally. This year differed from those in the past since all fall sports were recognized, not just football.

At Thanksgiving, signs were put up on the football players doors to psyche them up for the big game. As in past years, the pep club also sold candy bars to raise money. This proved to be a very profitable venture raising money to buy materials for posters and signs.

The club owes many thanks to Ms. O'Brien who helped bring it all together, and to president Leslie Persons, who had the patience to run it.

RACQUETBALL CLUB

In response to a growing interest in the new sport, the Racquetball Club was established last year by members of our class and advisor Mr. Micheal Medaglia. With a membership of close to fifty, there is, as to be expected, little organization. However, a few times a week, groups of kids would get their stuff together and make the trip to the scenie and luxurious Woburn Racquet Club. There was stiff competition among the experts and beginners learned quickly despite some bad experiences with corners, walls, and a very fast ball. Racquetball is a good sport because almost anyone can play. It is easy to learn, and doesn't require much equipment. The club welcomes both beginning and more experienced players.

BLOODMOBILE

On December 12, 1980, Melrose High School held an emergency bloodmobile in association with the Melrose Chapter of the American Red Cross. Mr. Hasset and Mrs. Romano coordinated the activity, with the help of Debbie McCarthy. Student volunteers signed up to work at the bloodmobile, and close to a hundred students and teachers offered to donate blood. The result was about eighty pints of blood. The regular annual bloodmobile is scheduled for March, and will hopefully be as successful as the first one.

One of the most spirited and dedicated groups at Melrose High School is the Majorettes. Led by Captain Gabriel Glennon, they tramp through the muddy football field every Saturday during the football season. Whether it be 70° or 35° the Majorettes are always out in front leading the team to victory. In the past few years, they have been considered part of the band and have been able to add their own special flair to the band's competition performances. The highlight of this year for the band and the Majorettes will be their spring trip to Florida.

MHS FEEDS

Melrose High School students have always taken a great pride in their superiority to the "Junior High Schoolers." They laugh at the seventh graders who forever seem to be carrying a stack of books twice their own weight and generally snob any student between the grades 7 and 9. However, in one aspect, lunch period, we are still the little seventh graders we were 6 years ago. Although we now dine off china instead of plastic and in an ultra-modern "cafetorium" instead of a basement cafeteria we have not changed. There is still the rush at the ring of the bell, the elbowing, the shoving, and the inevitable "cutting." If a student "survives" the lunch line, manages to climb the stairs without tripping and sending his lunch into someone's lap, and reaches his "territory" then he will be safe. However, should anything go wrong, he can always rely on the patrol of teachers, specially trained and equipped to put a quick end to food fights and any other general riot.

The standard joke at Melrose High School has always been the cafeteria lunches. Students have developed remarkable abilities to detect the taste of turkey in grinders and to find striking resemblances between Wednesday's ravioli and the last Thursday's American chop suey. They have claimed to use baconburgers as anything from hockey pucks to deadly weapons. One wonders why they go back for seconds! However, in spite of our criticism, the class of '81 would sincerely like to thank the cafeteria staff. We realize that institutionalized meals cannot be like Grandma's Sunday dinners, but ours came pretty close. Feeding over a thousand hungry people is no mean feat, and making the meals taste good as well is something to be proud of.

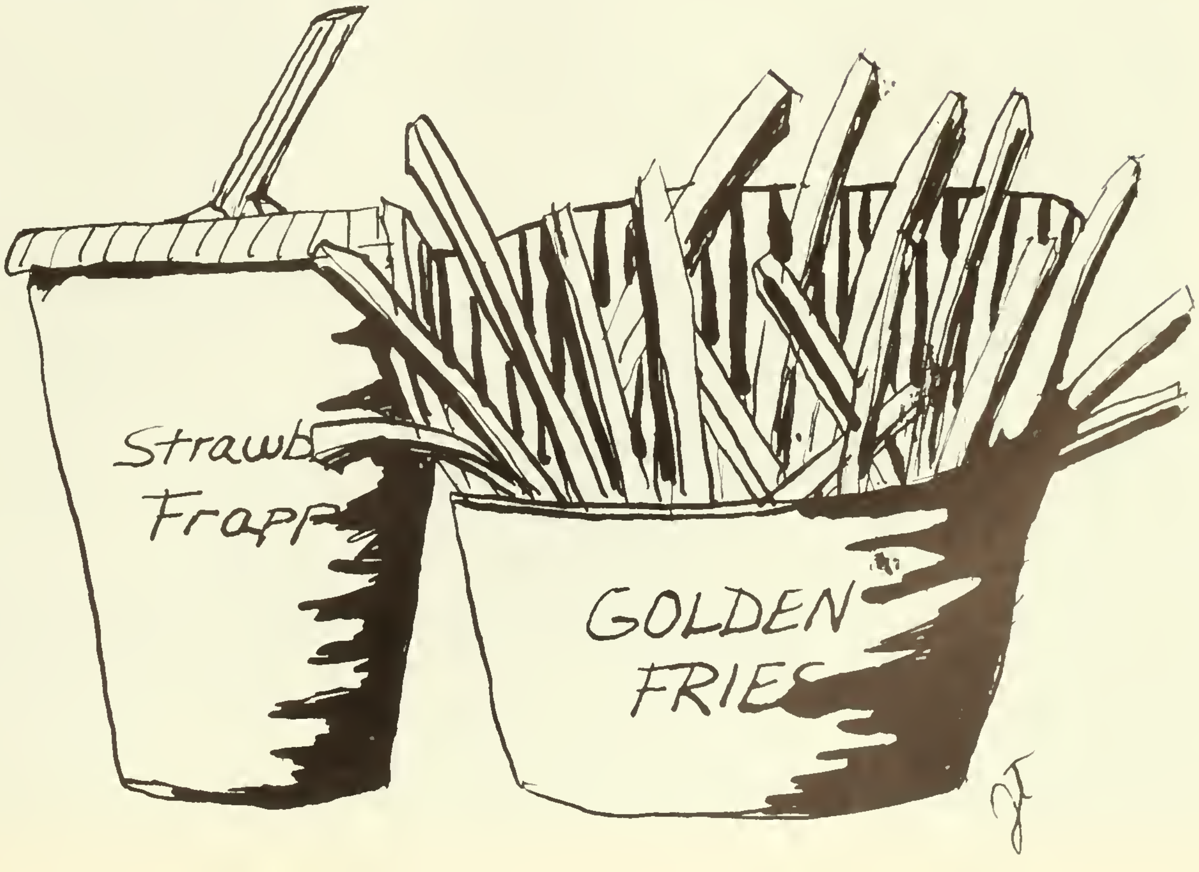
Working

Life for a senior at Melrose High certainly doesn't stop when he leaves school in the afternoon, and neither does work. Most students at the school hold down jobs in and around Melrose after school and on weekends. They can be seen everywhere. Supermarkets, restaurants, nursing homes and drugstores provide employment for many, while others work at the Melrose Public Library or the Melrose-Wakefield Hospital. These activities, whether five hours or twenty-five hours a week give students an opportunity to become part of the "working world." However for most students these part-time jobs are primarily a source of income; after all, being in high school is very expensive!

DIETS

You lost a few pounds and then gained them back,
'Cause you woke up yesterday with a Big Mac attack.
You got on the scale and were ready to faint
'Cause the numbers kept going up and a little kid you ain't!
You looked in the mirror and much to your surprise
The pizza you just ate has gone straight to your thighs!
A diet you say - I'll start right now,
Count the calories each day, just watch how!
Then one day the ice cream sundae appears,
And your conscience says no but your stomach overbears,
If that's not enough someone comes with some fries.
Your so hungry now you can taste them with your eyes!
Your stomach is growling and the pain you are feeling
Makes the carrot in front of you so unappealing
Forgot the diet you say - you don't want to be thin
Then you think of the jeans you want to fit in!



CARNATION DAY

This year, Friday the Thirteenth was a lucky day for many students at Melrose High School. Not only was it the last school day before vacation but the school's second annual Carnation Day. Under the guidance of class advisors Miss Donnellon and Mr. Haley, senior class officers, and senior congress members planned the day and took orders from students, faculty, and administration. The result was an amazing 1100 carnations delivered all over the school from girlfriends, boyfriends, secret admirers, and just plain friends. Even the blue and orange flowers brightened up dull, dreary classrooms and were a wonderful preview for the "spring weather" vacation that followed. Next year Carnation Day will be sponsored by the junior class and will hopefully become a tradition at Melrose High School.

WINTER BALL

An old tradition was revived this year with the organization of a Winter Ball at Melrose High. After a rather shaky beginning the project finally got underway as the number of tickets sold increased to over seventy, making the total attendance well over a hundred. The Ball was held on February 5, 1981 at the Mount Hood Country Club. The introduction of a disc jockey instead of a band was decidely un-traditional, but very successful. Chris Van and his "untouchable sound" gave a great performance and everyone had a good time. Judging by the hall, which was completely full, the Winter Ball is one Melrose High custom which will not be forgotten again.

THE WEEK . . . OHIM

I think the Boomtown Rats put it mildly when they say they don't like Mondays. Why do Mondays always remind us of rain and the blues and all the other nice things in life? Seniors especially feel the agony of the Monday Morning routine. After throwing the alarm clock across the room and sleeping until quarter of eight, we beat the 4 minute mile and somehow dive into homeroom before the piercing 8:10 bell rings through our still dazed minds. We'd give our right leg to sleep just 5 more minutes, which usually end up being forty-five. Why do we feel so exhausted on Monday mornings. Weekends are

We haven't learned that yet. We take advantage of every minute we can running until we drop. We need Mondays to catch up on our rest. I think for this reason the School Committee should agree to begin school at 10:00 with no announcements or bells or other irritating noises until 12:00. And definitely no tests on Mondays. It's the least they could do.

Somehow we manage to survive the Monday drudgery and go on to Tuesday. Not that it is any better, but it's a little easier. The next three days we stick it out and try to concentrate on school(??) But few people

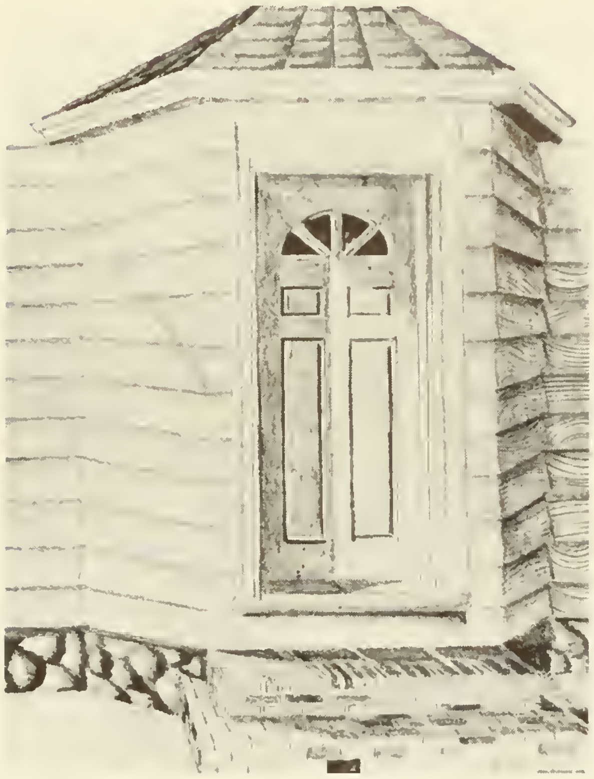
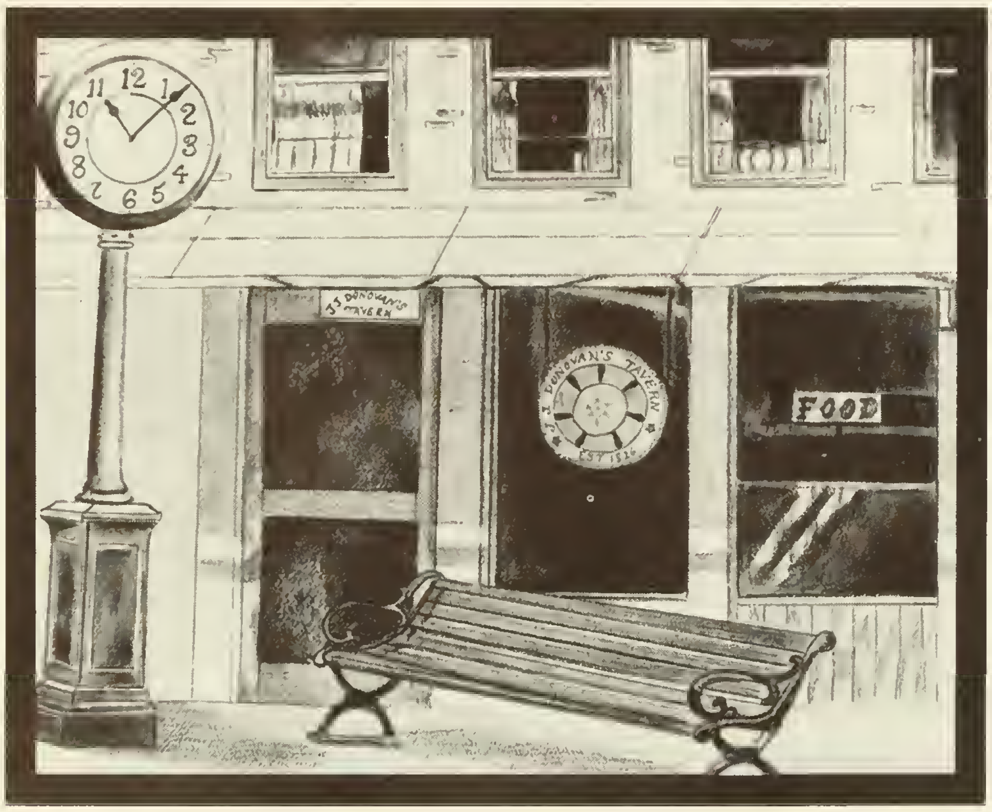
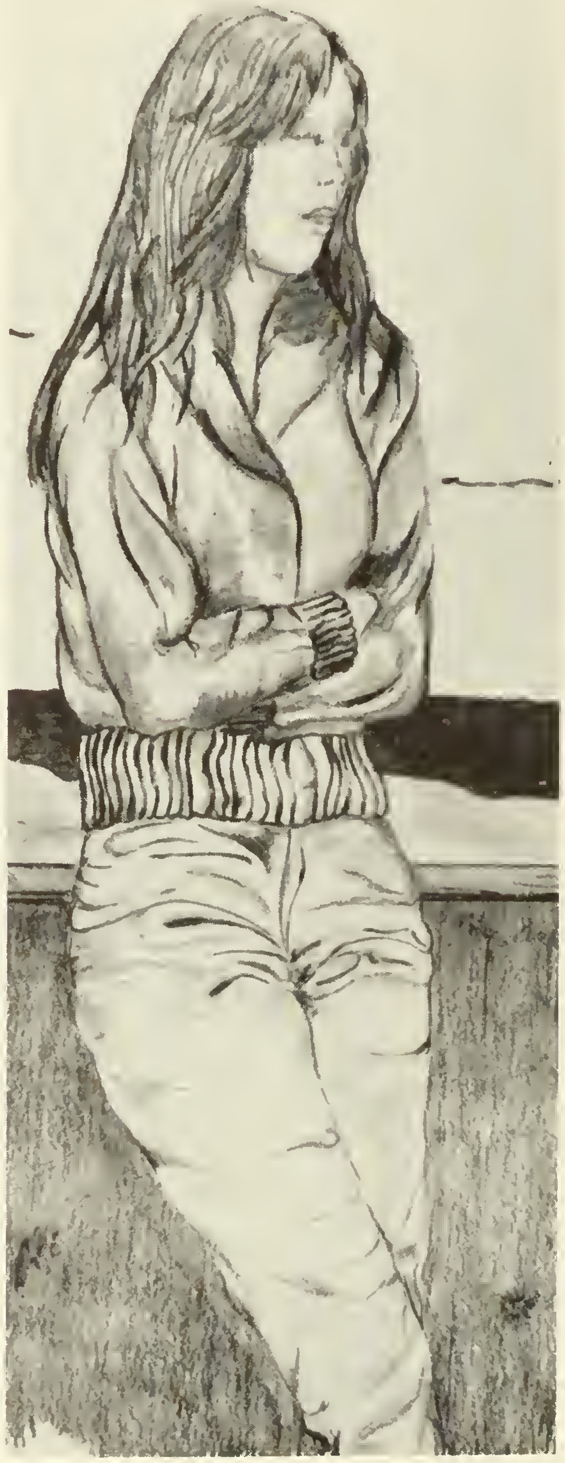
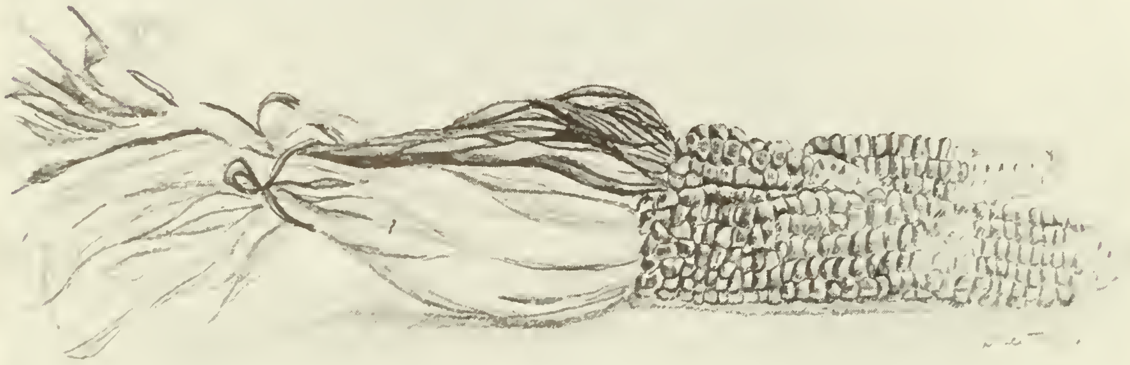
THE ART WORKS EST. 1981

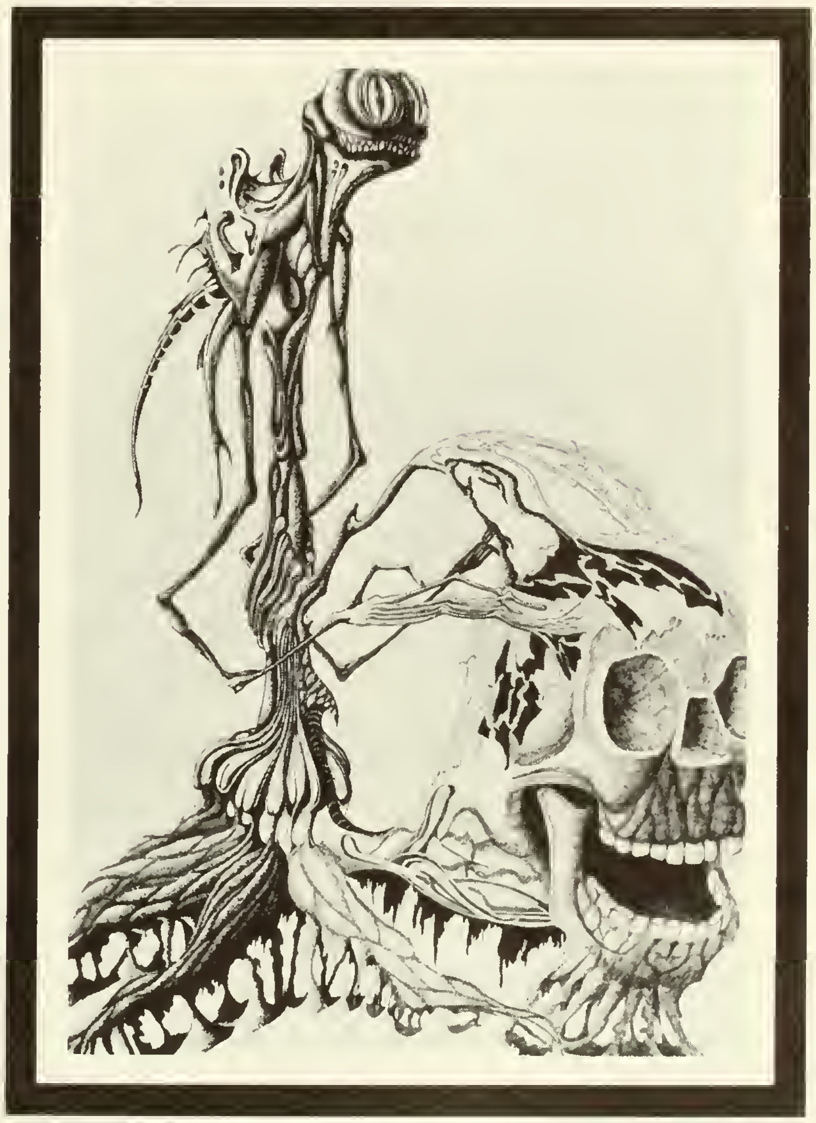


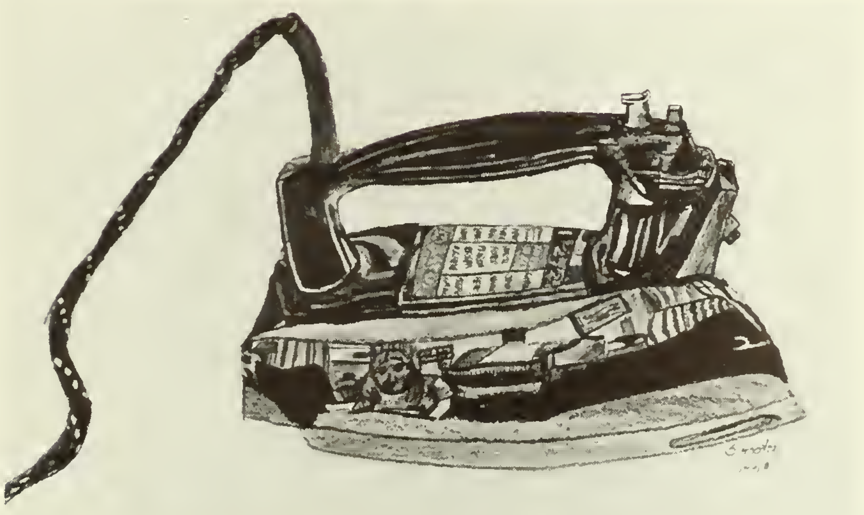
An impressive sight as one walks up to the main entrance of Melrose High School is the view of the Art room through a large picture window. The huge room is alive with activity and one can see the different Art and Crafts classes operating and interacting. Students select classes from a variety of art and crafts courses, including drawing, commercial art, and photography. Activities may be as varied as the ceramic work of Scott Kirby or the batiks of Maureen McKenna to the detailed, meticulous pen and ink drawings of Tom Sheehan, the pencil drawings of Grace Trifaro, the fashion illustrations of Jeanine D'Eon and Susan Sofia or the photographs of Scott Goodwin, Gretchen Bean and Sharon Connors. Senior Art Majors remember outdoor sketching of houses and their field trip to Fanuel Hall. Advanced Drawing classes enjoyed sketching the school's corridors and lobbies, while a favorite Commercial Art assignment was the "Name Event." Crafts classes worked in a variety of areas, including printmaking, batik, and ceramics. Photography students' most memorable event was a field trip to Fanuel Hall or Rockport. Outstanding work from Senior portfolios can be seen at the Art Festival. This year the work of three seniors - T. Sheehan, J. Timmons and S. Sofia won the Globe Art Award.











A Note to Young Lovers

Love is something that never dies.
Love is always there, never uncertain.
Love is not only loving, but being loved.
For if you feel that you are being loved, your love becomes stronger.
And in becoming stronger, it grows until it consumes your whole life.
And your love should be your whole life.
One should never say "I once loved you"
because love is never a one time affair.
Only physical love is such a case not true love.
True love is always there, never uncertain.
If you have "been shot down" as the saying goes
Thank God you are alive and not dead.
For such a love was not true. In not being true,
it would never have lasted.
If it leaves you sad and with memories.
If it makes you uncertain of the future.
If it seems as if the end of the world is near, you must live each day to its fullest extent; hopefully that the pain goes away; wishing that the memories leave you; praying that your true love will feel as strong, if not stronger.
Love is something that you never want to shut your heart to; for if you shut your heart to love, you shut your eyes to life. And in shutting your heart to love you become a plant and not the Supreme creature that God intended you to be.

The final challenge had been met, and the cries of "No. 1!" and "JACKETS!" went up in the cross-country locker room. Then, after the traditional sophomore dunking, the team carried a willing Coach MacIntyre into the showers. Bob MacIntyre enjoys the occasional cool-off because it signifies a successful season. 1980 was indeed successful for Mr. Mac.; his boys won the Middlesex League championship outright. With one meet left, Melrose has already clinched its first title in eight years. Striving for an undefeated season, they then went out and beat a fired-up Wakefield team 21-34. Leading the charge as usual was co-captain Jim Mahoney, who on his home course broke the Melrose record which he had set earlier in the season. Larry Sitcawich and co-captain Keith Milano teamed with Mahoney during the season to form the league's best triple threat. John Amarosso and Paul Norton comprised the rest of the top eight varsity spots. Filling the last two places on varsity were seven runners who shuttled back and forth between varsity and J.V.; among them were four seniors, Russ Bond, Luke Maguire, Jim Puzzanghera and Peter Wallace. The season itself was, of course, very exciting. Melrose proved its worth in the first two meets by edging 1979's co-champion Woburn 27-28 and annihilating pre-season favorite Reading 23-32. Melrose rolled through the rest of the league with hardly a scare en route to an undefeated season. The 9-0 record put them two wins ahead of both Reading and Woburn.

It was a good season for the girls' team also, considering it was their first year of competition. They tied for fifth (3-6) with a small team led by senior captain Carol Brown and juniors Sue Brown and Chris Morrisey. Since only one member is not returning, the girls' team should climb higher in the standings next year. MEMORIES INCLUDE: . . . The Jungle . . . Billy Goat . . . "Lean into it" . . . The 1980 field hockey season was one for all the girls to remember. Following a great '79 season the team found room for still more success. The spirit, aggression, and dedication of the team and coaches resulted in a 12-2-4 record and a berth in the state tourney. Led by captain Donna Wells the field hockey team pushed for all they could gain and ended their season with the sensation of being SATISFIED!

This years seniors were a significant factor in launching a new football era at Melrose High. Under the capable leadership of captain Bill Mara and new head coach Bruce MacPherson, the Red Raiders registered a respectable 5-4-1 record. The highlights of the year included a 14-0 victory over arch-rival Wakefield on Thanksgiving day as well as victories over Malden, Belmont, Reading and Stoneham. The tie was a 14-14 game against Woburn which ended a 23 game winning streak for the Tanners.

The team was dedicated and worked hard with a high degree of enthusiasm. The team was basically an underclass group with solid leadership from the senior class. Captain Mara was the group's leading scorer and rushed for over 1,100 yards. Mara, along with Paul Guthro, Ken Runge and Bill MacInness were selected to the All-Middlesex League All-Star team.

The Melrose Girls Varsity basketball team led by Captain Laura Antonucci finished with a record of 7-11. Although the team finished in sixth position on the Middlesex League, the five teams that preceded Melrose all qualified for the state tournament. The win and loss record does not indicate how close this was to a winning season, because of the tight scores and the many games that could have gone either way. We would all like to thank our coach Jan Johnston for all our accomplishments. During the season we shared many great moments and memories; our first and last wins, wild horses . . ., food fight, shaving cream, pj's, showers, slippery floor, "coach go boom", baby food, late practices, Mac runs, one on one w/Fu, "I'm sorry", "Ready? What started out to be a rebuilding year turned into a winning season when the swimmers, lead by co-captains Luke Maguire and Scott Brown, upset Winchester and then defeated Watertown, Burlington, Wakefield, Leominster, and Danvers to start the season, A loss to champion Belmont cost the team the league championship, but a 9-3 year looks possible. The year was high-lighted by a record breaking performance by senior Dave Flanagan in the backstroke and consistent victories by diver Gary McManus, sprinter Mark Puleo, and Tom Hardy in the butterfly. Outstanding underclassmen were Kevin Kodzis, Mark Sweeney, Don Cranley, and Paul Degnan.

SOCCER (A KICK IN THE GRASS)

Under the fine coaching of Mr. Arthur Poulos and the additional valuable assistance of Mr. Mulvihill, thesoccer team had an exciting and challenging season.

For the second year in a row, Melrose finished sixth in the Middlesex League with a 5-10-3 record. This season, the team started slowly but rallied to score in eight of their last nine games while also enjoying a five game unbeaten streak. After an undefeated pre-season, there were disappointments in the actual league play but the two 1-0 losses to league champion Wakefield showed the caliber of soccer this Melrose club was capable of playing. This year's team had a first team Middlesex League All Star, Paul Denning, the most outstanding goaltender in the Middlesex League, Bill Donovan, as well as two Middlesex Honorable mention All Stars, Paul Fountain and Doug Green. The graduating seniors include co-captains Doug Green and Bill Rogers, Keith Daly, Paul Denning, John Feeney, Leo Fennell, Paul Fountain, Dan Messina, John Norton, Tim Reilly, Tom Ricciardelli, and Bob Sherman.

This year the Melrose High School Golf team finished the season with a strong 6-2-1 record and a tie for second place in the Middlesex League. By winning 70% of our matches we qualified for the State Team Tournament in the spring.

The best season record was held by a sophomore Larry Bellorado. The two seniors, Terry Knight and Michelle Bell both ended the season with winning records. Juniors Tom Dyer and Joe Caruso also had winning records while sophomore Ralph Galante broke even. The top three players on the team will be eligible to go on to the State Individual Tournament this spring.

The season was greatly saddened by the death of Coach William Reynolds. Yet, the players showed great individual and team determination, finishing with an excellent record and a berth in the state tournament.

The Melrose High Varsity hoop team had a very successful season. After several disappointing seasons, Melrose turned things around this year and just missed making the state tournament, finishing with a 14-8 record. The team had an explosive first half with midseason records of 8-0 and 12-2 and a championship in the Mass. Maritime Academy's Invitational Tournament. The team will never forget the great victory over Burlington and the close losses to the strong teams from Lexington, Woburn, and Burlington. Crowd support was a big factor in this year's success as large numbers turned out for all home games, especially the Lexington and Woburn games. The team was led by co-captains Bill MacIndewar and Bob Clifford and anchored by seniors Tim Daly, Ray Pecci, Toren McGovern, Tom Prior, and Shawn Wise. The team would like to thank coach "Buddy" O'Neill for being an outstanding coach and to wish good luck to the team in the future.

The indoor track team rebounded from three tough early season defeats to win its last 5 meets and finish with a respectable 6 - 3 record. Melrose had a well balanced team; The Captains Jim Mahony, Keith Milano, and Larry Sitcawish led a very strong distance crew, while seniors Dave Eichel, Kevin Driscoll, and others fared well in the shorter distances and field events. After the opening loss to eventual league champion Woburn, Melrose lost only to Winchester and Reading in two heartbreaking meets decided by the final event, the one mile relay. Other contributing seniors were Russ Bond, Jack Deliere, Bill McInnis, David Yannetti, Kerry Granfield, Jim Puzzanghera, Randy Rocha, George Rudolph, Bob Sarazen, John Norton, and Carol Brown.

The handoff

Run for daylight

RED ROSÉ vs. WHITE CHABLIS

They entered the locker room as refined young ladies, and they came out mean and ready to win.

After sufficient practice and superb coaching the two teams couldn't wait to test each others' skills.

The excitement mounted as the stands quickly filled with spectators. The first half showed almost professional style ball-handling with the score 12-6 in favor of White Chablis.

A squad of spectacular cheerleaders provided the half time entertainment, their most memorable trick being a three story pyramid.

Back in action, the game was described by advisor Robert Hassett as "one of the best played in years."

Noreen O'Malley proved to be the key in the Rosé offense with her "up the middle" play fooling the White team time after time. Much to the relief of the White Team, Red Rose's third touchdown was called back on penalties. With two minutes to play, and the score 14-12, Carol Prantice flew past the Rosé defense to clinch the victory sending the White Team and the crowd into a frenzy. Even after the excitement lulled, the locker room was clear, and the uniforms were off, the enthusiasm and the excitement will never be forgotten.

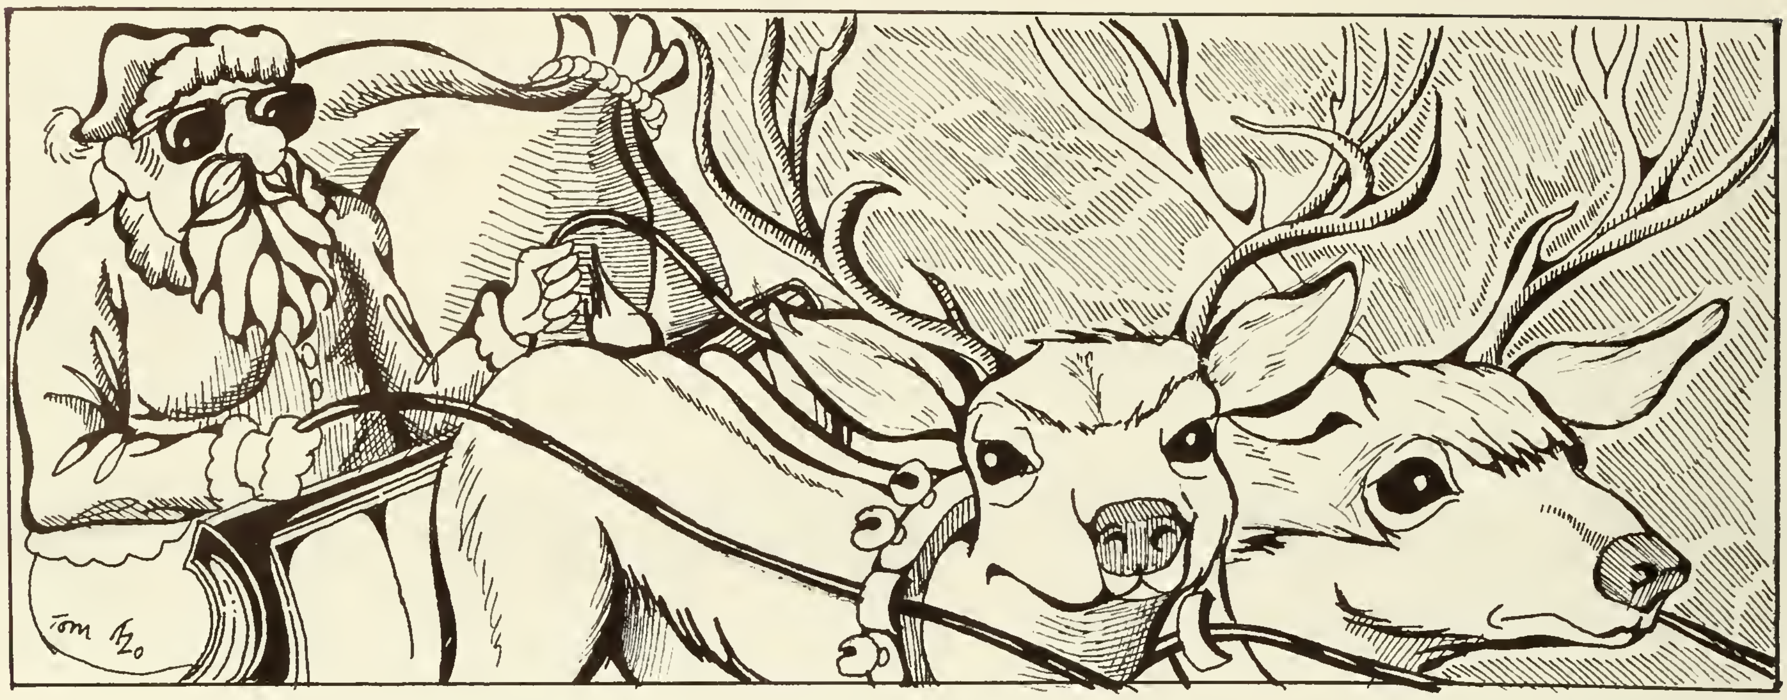
CHRISTMAS PARTY



This year, Santa Claus came early to Melrose High School. On December 18, the school hosted a Christmas Party for one-hundred special needs students in the area. Close to forty Melrose High School students volunteered to bake, decorate, or shop for presents. In order to raise money for the party, the students, under the guidance of Mrs. Romano and Mr. Robert Hassett, sponsored a lasagna dinner. The extra vaganza was followed by a student-faculty volleyball game. The "respectable, adult" faculty team suddenly became very vicious on court and defeated the students by a long margin.

The party itself was one of the highlights of the Christmas season. The guests feasted on MacDonald's hamburgers and Friendly's ice cream. A committee of elves made a special trip from the North Pole to distribute presents and goodies to all. Entertainment was provided by Rocco Antonelli and John Amoroso who played and sang Christmas carols, the Modern Dance Club, and the chorus. It was an enjoyable experience for all who participated.

That's entertainment!

All together now . . . Silent Night

Here comes Santa Claus!

You deserve a break today!

Everyone loves a clown.

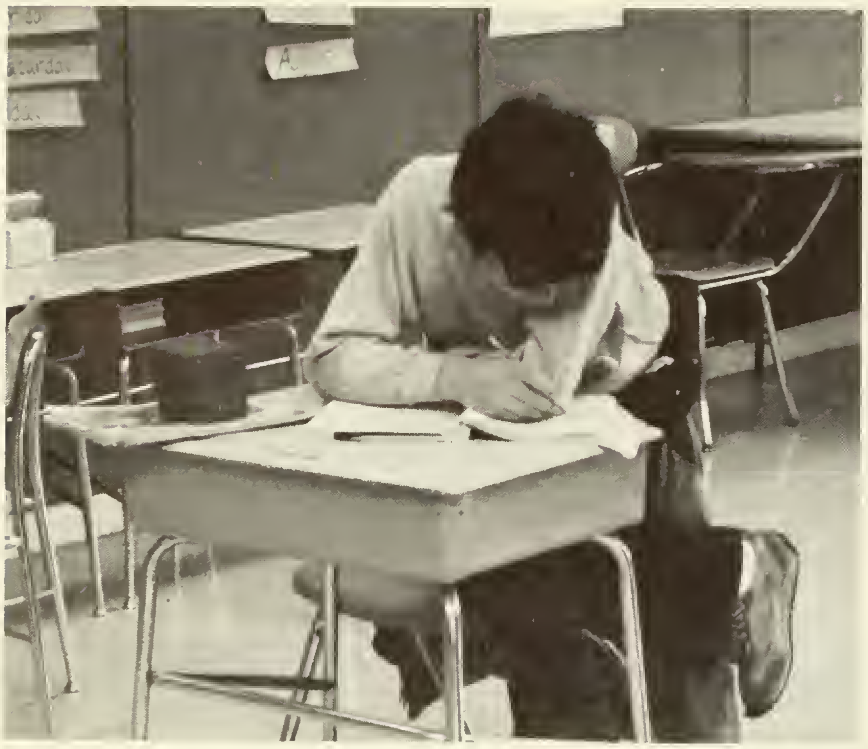
Do I have to eat my vegetables?

Frosty made a visit.

An elf pep talk.

You better be good!

SPECIAL SCHOOL



The High School Life Skills Program has been very active this year. Students have been working hard to acquire the basic skills needed to become independent citizens of the community.

The class has participated in many activities, including cooking, bowling, swimming, and shopping. They especially enjoyed their part-time jobs.

Members of the class are: Peter Beaulieu, Martha Billington, Joe Crowley, Eileen DiPirro, Jane Hickey, Paula Kilty, Peter Marchi, and Richard Umano. Their teacher is Walter Bearse.

Special thanks to the Student Congress for the fantastic Christmas Party. We appreciate your warm thoughts.

If you put truth
Above your own desires
And value those as friends
Who feel the same
If you take pride in things
That you've accomplished
And when you're wrong,
Stand up and take the blame . . .

If you can understand your limitations
And not waste time on tasks beyond your scope
But take the future as a brand new challenge
That you can meet with confidence and hope

If you can listen to those who would advise you
And then judge for yourself just what is right

If you can keep in touch with all about you
And settle differences without a fight

If you can staunchly stick by your convictions
And not let others set your goals for you

If you can be as practical as need be
And still remember sometimes dreams come true

If you can live the life that you believe in
And trust your judgement and maturity
Then you'll be not just happy and successful,
But the worthwhile person you are meant to be.

Graduates

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here.

Boston

Fanueil Hall

As most of us would agree, Melrose is not a very lively city, especially for high school seniors looking for excitement. Still there is an alternative to suburban peace and quiet. Boston is only ten miles away. Getting there is as easy as hopping onto the subway; the real problem is deciding what to do once you arrive. You can cheer on the Red Sox at Fenway Park, go to a concert in Boston Garden, ride the swan boats in the Public Gardens, or just sit back and enjoy the view from the top of the John Hancock Building. There are museums to see, countless stores to visit, and of course thousands of places to eat. As everyone knows, the North End has the best Italian food this side of the Atlantic, while the seafood restaurants on the waterfront are fantastic.

Undoubtedly the best place to spend an afternoon, as most Melrose students have discovered, is Quincy Market. Fanueil Hall is everyone's favorite, with its endless variety of places to eat. Among best bets for food are Regina's Pizza and The Ming Tree's Chinese food. Many a diet has been destroyed by Swenson's ice-cream sundaes or Anna's fried dough. For those of us with a sweet tooth, Sweet Stuff is paradise. Finally, one can browse through the interesting shops in the marketplace. Have A Heart and Bear Necessities are musts, while the newest and wildest styles can be found at Fiorucci.

Even without spending any money, a trip to Boston can be a great deal of fun. There is always something interesting to do or see, whether it is strolling along the banks of the Charles or simply watching the wide variety of people who can be seen throughout the city.

RETURN OF THE TALL SHIPS

They came from places as far away as Portugal and Australia. The occasion was the arrival of the Tall Ships and, of course, the climax of Boston's 350th birthday celebration. Businesses and offices closed. Crowds jostled and pressed in Waterfront Park and on Castle Island to catch a glimpse of the ships. Even the small quiet suburban town of Melrose was affected. The beautiful spring day was not just another schoolday. For most students it was a day of freedom; a day of elbowing through excited crowds.

Main street Melrose. It is like any other Main street - a mix of the modern and the victorian, a YMCA, a bank, a church, a city hall with a clock tower, and a wall eroded with teenagers. There are millions of Main streets in America. But to us, "Main Street" means Main Street Melrose. In the years to come, whether we live in Melrose or come back to visit, it will never be the same. We will never again be so much a part of the community. Even our favorite hangouts will be taken over by other "kids."

"The Wall," the YMCA, and the benches are Melrose landmarks in their own right. Further down Main St. there is Friendly's but that has become strictly "Junior High Territory." Here we spent our free time and after school and the long hot summer days. But as we grew older we grew away from them because we had cars and were "independent."

We couldn't wait to get out of Melrose. It was "dull and boring" - no cinemas, shopping malls, or roller skating rinks. We couldn't wait to take off to college or that new job until graduation began to approach. Melrose all of a sudden doesn't seem to be such a bad place. And leaving everyone you've known for the past eighteen years seems much worse.

LETTER FROM EDITOR

Well, the day I never thought would come has finally arrived. The 1981 MHS LOG is complete. After many hours of work, frustration, fun and arguments, we have finished. It was a very challenging project to say the least. The people involved had little or no yearbook experience to start with, but their intelligence, talent, dedication and enthusiasm made up for this. The bulk of the work was done by Suzy, Scott, Barbara, Fiona, Kelli, Joyce and me with significant contributions from Ann Petmezakis, Tom Sheehan, Mary Leahy, Gretchen Bean, Jeff Brown, and Pete Regan. Others helped out from coaches and teachers to captains and other students. Thank you. A very special thanks to Ron Paula for his incredible amount of work on this book. Good luck to the great class of '81, I hope you like the book

LETTER FOR THE ADVISOR

It is late at night, cold and rainy. This deadline is due in the plant in a few days and, like the other deadlines were, it is nowhere near complete. But so goes nearly evey yearbook staff's dilemma. Each month we live with a gripping fear that we'll come up with too few pages or too little copy or too many errors missed in that last minute surge of late night proofreading. But then, when the deadline material has been shipped off to the printers, we breath a great sigh of relief and begin it all over again, as if it were an obsession. This kind of insane commitment comes only with dedicated workers and, had it not been for certain people on the LOG staff, you would not have the book before you now.

Each one of them deserves special thanks: Diane for organizing; Scott for those 6:30 a.m. and 10:00 p.m. darkroom sessions, thanks; Barb and Fiona and the literary staff for their great job; Sue, for always being optimistic; Joyce, for staying to do layouts when she should have been home, thanks; Kelli for all your typing. There are others but space does not permit naming them all, thanks for helping out. For the past 7 months the staff members have lived with this book and admittedly, much of the time it was like dragging around 184 pages of dead weight. But now that the final pages have gone to press, we are happy to give to you our conception of Melrose High School the way 1800 students saw it this year.
